Elder Antonio R. Ivins to Speak To Local State Saturday, Sunday

Elder Antonio R. Ivins, a member of the First Council of the Seventy of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints (Mormon) in Salt Lake City, will be the featured speaker Saturday and Sunday, Nov. 12 and 13, during a quarterly conference of the Church's Torrance Stake in Torrance.

Sunday's general sessions, to which the public is invited, will be held at 9:30 a.m. and 2 p.m. in the Torrance Stake Center.

CONDUCTING the conference will be Stake President Roland E. Gagon, 3332 Winlock Road.

Elder Ivins, one of the seven-man council assigned to the world-wide mission work of the Church, lived as a boy in Colonia Juarez, Mexico. He managed the Church-owned sugar plantations in Hawaii for 10 years, then became Mexican Mission President. He has also been an enthusiastic leader in community affairs and youth activities.

Saturday evening meetings will be for lay church leaders, devoted to the Church's local and world-wide missionary program and the Church Welfare Plan.

THE CHURCH maintains an extensive educational system and has erected 12 sacred temples in North America, Europe and Oceania, and operates farms, canneries and warehouses to care for the welfare of its members.

Since the translation of the Book of Mormon and restoration of the Church more than 130 years ago, membership has grown throughout the world to include thousands of flourishing congregations. An extensive building program is working continually on at least 600 churches to provide for its expanding wards and branches.

Throughout the world, the Church has more than 6000 missionaries, mostly young men and women, serving from two to three years at their own expense.

BUILDER'S CHOICE:

"I choose to live in a Medallion home."

ROBERT J. HASSETT, SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA BUILDER

"These days, most people are definitely interested in electric living. And why not. Electric cooking is so much faster. With children around the house, a woman's time is at a premium. And everybody knows how much cleaner electricity is.

"Medallion standards give you all the wiring you need, especially when a man has shop tools. Lighting, installed to Medallion standards, eliminates dim spots.

"All in all, I find that my Medallion homes appeal to people with young ideas... progressive people, raising families... folks with an eye on the future. That's us. That's why we live in a Medallion home."

Robert Hassett, builder and home owner, speaks from experience. When you buy or build, take the word of an expert: make sure the home has the Medallion Award.

Only one new home in five qualifies for the Medallion—an Award which assures you:

1. All-electric kitchen, equipped with major electric appliances, including flameless range and oven.
2. Housepower wiring for modern electric living.
3. Light for Living—abundant light designed for comfort, safety and beauty.

The Gold Medallion Award includes all these Medallion features and more. For total electric living, the Gold Medallion adds:

4. Flameless electric space and water heating.

Minister for Orient Crusades Speaks Sunday

Rev. Norman Nelson of Orient Crusades will be the guest speaker at the First Baptist Church Sunday, Nov. 13th for both the 9:15 and 10:45 services, according to a release issued by the Rev. Morgan Gates, Pastor.

Rev. Nelson is an outstanding tenor soloist and speaker. He has sung in some of the largest auditoriums in America; he is a recording artist and has made many appearances on TV and network radio shows. Having held leading roles in light opera, he was concert soloist on many occasions in such places as Los Angeles Philharmonic, Pasadena Civic auditorium, Hollywood Bowl and Portland Civic auditorium. During several of Billy Graham's crusades, Norm was the featured soloist.

HAVING THE desire to give his life in full-time Gospel work, Nelson left his home in Denver, Col., and came to Los Angeles to study for the ministry. For over 10 years, he was preaching and singing throughout America and also made a three month tour of the Orient, singing in many places before large audiences.

Accepting the challenge to sing and preach to audiences "who have never heard," Norman went to the Philippines in August, 1956, as a missionary under Orient Crusades.

USING THE facilities of Orient Crusades Radio Studio in Manila, Rev. Nelson is now broadcasting three times per week over 14 of the largest radio stations in the Philippines. Teaming with missionaries in other fields, Norm is preparing the "Challenge of Christ" broadcasts that are heard in selected stations of America.

He is a tireless missionary always "singing with grace in his heart to the Lord," Rev. Gates said. "We have been eagerly awaiting this day for a long time and expect a capacity turnout for both services. Our nursery is always open and the public is invited."

Emphasis on Stewardship At Calvary

Dewey Lockman, Baptist layman and Christian businessman, will deliver his personal testimony on the subject of Christian Stewardship at Calvary Baptist Church's 8:30 and 11 a.m. duplicate Sunday services.

The church, located at 2818 Manhattan Beach Blvd., is engaged in a four-Sunday stewardship emphasis with the theme, "Tithing Enriches Life." Lockman heads the Lockman Foundation, publishers of the Amplified version of the new Testament, and printers and distributors of more than a million gospel messages a year. A veteran tither, Lockman will speak on "My Tithing Experience and God's Blessing." He will share his thrilling experiences of how God prospered him in his investments and enriched his life when he took God into his partnership.

The Pastor, Rev. H. Earl Kuester, will preach at 7 p.m. from the Book of Ezekiel, currently being read in the Calvary Baptist "Through the Bible" schedule. Chapters 38 and 39 will give the prophetic background for his message "Ezekiel Foretells Russia's Doom."
